Reference to an index does not imply that an L&G – Asset Management, America portfolio will achieve returns, volatility or other results similar to the index. You cannot invest directly in an index, therefore, the composition of a benchmark index may not reflect the manner in which an L&G – Asset Management, America portfolio is constructed in relation to expected or achieved returns, investment holdings, portfolio guidelines, restrictions, sectors, correlations, concentrations, volatility, or tracking error targets, all of which are subject to change over time.

No representation or warranty is made to the reasonableness of the assumptions made or that all assumptions used to construct the performance provided have been stated or fully considered.

Hypothetical performance results have many inherent limitations and no representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those shown. In fact, there are frequently sharp differences between hypothetical performance results and the actual results subsequently achieved by any particular trading program.

One of the limitations of hypothetical performance results is that they are generally prepared with the benefit of hindsight. In addition, hypothetical trading does not involve financial risk, and no hypothetical trading record can completely account for the impact of financial risk in actual trading. For example, the ability to withstand losses or to adhere to a particular trading program in spite of trading losses are material points which can also adversely affect actual trading results. There are numerous other factors related to the markets in general or to the implementation of any specific trading program which cannot be fully accounted for in the preparation of hypothetical performance results and all of which can adversely affect actual trading results.

The use of hypothetical performance is subject to inherent limitations derived from the reliance on historical data and the benefit of hindsight. All trading strategies applied to the analysis were available throughout the performance period. However, the analysis includes certain assumptions where actual performance could be different from the hypothetical performance presented.

The information presented may include assumptions based on hypothetical scenarios. These assumptions are used to illustrate how certain investment strategies, models, or projections might perform under specific conditions.

These assumptions are theoretical and intended to provide a conceptual framework for understanding how certain investment strategies or models might operate under idealized conditions. These assumptions do not reflect actual market conditions or specific investor circumstances. Hypothetical scenarios may simplify complex market dynamics and investor behaviors. They may not fully capture the impact of variables such as market volatility, liquidity constraints, or transaction costs. The assumptions used may have inherent limitations and may not accurately represent future market conditions or investor experiences. They are designed for illustrative purposes only and should not be interpreted as predictive of actual performance or outcomes.

There is no guarantee that actual results will match the outcomes suggested by these hypothetical assumptions. Real-world investing involves risks and uncertainties that may differ from the assumptions made in these scenarios. Investors should carefully consider their own financial situation, risk tolerance, and investment goals before making decisions based on hypothetical assumptions. It is recommended to consult with a financial advisor to understand how these assumptions might apply to actual investment scenarios.

Portfolio credit quality is calculated using a market value weighted average, based on the conservative average of Moody’s, S&P, and Fitch ratings expressed in Moody’s nomenclature. If all three ratings agencies rate the security, it is the middle of the three, if two, the lower of two, and if one, that becomes the rating.
